REGISTRATION AND WORKSHOPS

REGISTRATION
To ensure course availability, students are encouraged to register by the suggested registration dates posted in the Important Dates section. Students who fail to register by the posted deadline run the risk that courses may be full or cancelled.

Following their initial enrollment through the Student Support Center, students may register and make registration changes (add/drop courses) online on PioneerWeb. Instructions are available online. In addition to registering online, students may register by phone through the Student Support Center at 303-871-2291 or 800-347-2042. Students using employer reimbursement or direct bill payment options should fax paperwork to 303-871-3305 at the time of registration.

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION/TECHNOLOGY OVERVIEW
New students are invited to attend an orientation session held on the University of Denver campus or to participate in the online version. Subjects covered include: key policies and procedures, admission, the Career Center, the Anderson Academic Commons/library, parking, ID cards, and more. During the technology overview students will become familiar with the web-based tools they will use to be successful at University College, including PioneerWeb, MyWeb, DU WiFi, Office365 and Canvas, the University of Denver’s learning management system. Representatives from the Student Support Center, admission, and the Career Center will be available to answer questions.

Students may bring their electronic devices and receive assistance setting up the DU wireless network (Pioneer Net) and have other DU technology questions answered at the University Technology Services Computer Help Center. The IT Computer Help Center is located in the Anderson Academic Commons. To view the Help Center hours and the type of support they offer please visit their website.

The new student orientation/technology overview is typically held the week before the quarter begins. The online new student orientation can be accessed on Canvas a few weeks prior to the start of the quarter. Please check the University College website for the next on campus orientation session and register online.

WRITING WORKSHOP
University College offers a free writing workshop held on campus each quarter. Students may also participate in a structured, self-paced, online version. The online writing workshop can be accessed on Canvas a few weeks prior to the start of the quarter. Please check the University College website, the University College tab on PioneerWeb, or call the Student Support Center for the next available workshop date and time. Students may register online for the on campus writing workshop.

OPEN WRITE NIGHTS
University College offers Open Write Nights throughout the quarter to provide drop-in writing support for both on campus and online students. Students will be able to get one on one writing assistance from University College faculty. Open Write Nights are typically held between 4:00 and 6:00pm (MST) in University Hall Room 304. Online students can join through Zoom. Look for upcoming Open Write Nights on our blog and on our website under the Updates section.

STUDENT HANDBOOK
A full description of student policies and procedures can be viewed online on PioneerWeb on the University College tab under Resources. Students should familiarize themselves with the handbook prior to the start of classes.
TECHNOLOGY

http://pioneerweb.du.edu

The University of Denver is committed to making electronic availability of resources efficient and easy to access. PioneerWeb provides access to MyWeb, the Student tab, the University College tab, resources, and more. It is web-based, so students do not have to install additional software.

To log into PioneerWeb, students must have their nine-digit DU ID and eight character alphanumeric passcode. For first time users, the passcode will be the student’s six-digit month, day, and year of birth (mmddyy). First time users will be prompted to change their passcode to something more secure. The new passcode must be at least eight digits and alphanumeric (contain at least 1 letter and 1 number).

If students experience difficulties, they should contact the Student Support Center. New students may access information and links to important DU departments by selecting the Incoming Grad Students tab. This tab is available for approximately three weeks after initial admission or registration.

STUDENT TAB

The Student tab in PioneerWeb allows students to review their academic profile, view grades and unofficial transcripts, change address and phone numbers, check account information and review bills, view financial aid requirements and awards, make advising appointments, run Degree Audit reports, order official transcripts, request enrollment/degree verifications, and add/drop classes. New students will have access to make registration changes (add/drop courses) and to register for future courses online after their initial registration through the Student Support Center. PioneerWeb does not allow students to withdraw from their last class. Students must contact the Student Support Center to withdraw from all courses for a quarter.

Online registration instructions are available on PioneerWeb on the University College Tab in the Technology section, or on the Registrar’s website.

EMAIL

The University of Denver provides all students with a DU email address: firstname.lastname@du.edu. Newly admitted students will receive an email or letter indicating that their DU email address has been created and that their firstname.lastname@du.edu email account is available on Office 365.

The DU email address is the official University of Denver means of communication and will be used in campus applications such as online tuition bills, Canvas, Portfolio, and the online student directory. Students should regularly check their Office365 email mailbox to ensure that important information from University offices, faculty, and colleagues is received. Students may elect to forward email from the Office 365 email account to a personal email address.

Students must log into PioneerWeb and change their password before logging into Office 365 for the first time. Students can log into Office 365 with their DU email address and PioneerWeb passcode. The first time students log into Office 365, they should select “OneDrive” and follow the prompts to setup their OneDrive for Business folder. When finished, students can choose “Outlook” from the App Selector to start using their email account.

To forward DU email to a personal account, or to change forwarding options, students should log into Office 365 and in Settings (click the gear icon in the top right corner) chose Mail and then Forwarding. More information about forwarding is available online.

For more information about Office 365 including instructions for logging in, or for information concerning email and internet services, or for problems with DU email accounts, please visit the Office 365 help page or contact the Information Technology Services (IT) Help Center at 303-871-4700 or visit http://support.du.edu.

http://office365.du.edu/

The University of Denver has selected Microsoft Office 365 to provide cloud based storage and collaboration tools to students, staff, and faculty members. Office 365 is provided by Microsoft and offers a number of features to help students create and edit documents, store files, and work with other DU students on group projects. Office 365 features offered at the University of Denver include:

OneDrive for Business - With Office 365 students have One TeraByte (1,000 GigaBytes – that's a lot!) of storage in the cloud for files. When a PC, Mac, or phone are connected to the internet, students can open and edit files stored on OneDrive for Business.

Office 365 Pro Plus - When students log into Office 365, they can download up to five copies of the most recent version of Microsoft Office for their PC or Mac at no additional cost! Students can also get Microsoft Office for their iPhone, iPad, and Android devices from the Apple and Google app stores. Office for your phone or tablet does not count against the five free copies for Mac and PC.

Office Online – When students log into Office 365, they can create and edit documents using online versions of Word, Excel, or PowerPoint in a web browser. This works even if students don’t have Microsoft Office installed on their computer!

Skype for Business - Available to all DU students, Skype for Business is a collaboration tool that combines Instant Messaging, audio chat, video conferencing, document and screen-sharing and other features into one package. More information is available online.

Zoom - Cloud based video communications service. Students can create high-quality online meetings, classes, and events that leverage Instant Messaging, video conferencing, breakout rooms, screen-sharing and whiteboards on a unified platform. More information is available online.

Outlook for Email - The University of Denver provides all students with a DU email address: `firstname.lastname@du.edu` and an Office 365 email mailbox. Your DU email may be forwarded to a personal account if you prefer.

Students must log into PioneerWeb and change their password before logging into Office 365 for the first time. Students can log into Office 365 with their DU email address and PioneerWeb passcode. The first time students log into Office 365, they should select “OneDrive” and follow the prompts to setup their OneDrive for Business folder. For more information about Office 365 including instructions for logging in, please visit http://go.du.edu/office365 or contact the IT Help Center at 303-871-4700 or visit http://support.du.edu. CANVAS

https://canvas.du.edu

Canvas is the learning management system utilized by University College for online courses, classes with an online component, and communication for on campus classes. All students, including those in on campus courses, must log into their Canvas course container during the first week of the quarter. Should the University of Denver campus close for a prolonged period of time, all classes will be held on Canvas. We want to ensure that in the event of a campus closure, all students can successfully access their courses online.

Canvas creates a dynamic virtual classroom experience that provides course content ranging from text and graphics to audio and video. This web-based learning management system includes easy to use discussion boards, communication tools which facilitate meaningful exchange with other students and instructors, video conference capabilities, online assessment tools, and helpful technical support to accommodate student needs.

Registered students will be able to access their Canvas course container approximately one week before the start date of class, however, students will have access to the Canvas student orientation tutorial, new student orientation, and writing workshop shortly after registration. Upon dropping a class, students will be removed from the course container.
Students access their Canvas courses at https://canvas.du.edu or by clicking on the Canvas link at the bottom of the University College website.

Login - Students log in using their DU ID number and the passcode they use to access PioneerWeb. If students do not remember their PioneerWeb passcode, they should contact the Student Support Center at 303-871-2291 or 1-800-347-2042. Students can also reset their passcode at PioneerWeb using the Forgot your Passcode? link. Changing a PioneerWeb passcode will change a student’s Canvas passcode.

Notification Preferences - Canvas has a helpful notification system that updates students on the course activities taking place in their Canvas courses. Students can decide how they want to be notified; through email, text message, or even Facebook! After logging into Canvas, students should set-up their notification preferences by following the steps outlined in this Canvas guide. If students need additional guidance, they should contact the Student Support Center.

Tutorial - Students are encouraged to participate in the self-paced online Canvas tutorial. This course will acquaint students with how online courses operate, will introduce important resources, and will allow students to become familiar with the learning management system. For more Canvas resources, review the Canvas Student Video Guide and the Canvas Student Guide. We also encourage students to review the new student orientation and writing workshop on Canvas.

Canvas Apps - Courses on Canvas may also be accessed on the Canvas app for iPhones, iPads, and Android devices. Students can visit the app store via their smartphone and search “Canvas Instructure” to download the Canvas app. After downloading and opening the app, students should enter the University of Denver’s Canvas URL (https://canvas.du.edu), and log in using their Canvas credentials to start exploring the app. Learn more about using the Android app through the Android App Guide. The iOS App Guide will walk students through using the app on an iPhone or iPad.

Help Desk - If students encounter difficulties logging into Canvas with their DU ID and PioneerWeb passcode, they should contact the Student Support Center at ucolsupport@du.edu, 303-871-2291, or 1-800-347-2042. For other technical difficulties, students should contact the Canvas Help Desk by phone at 855-712-9770 or can access the live chat feature or submit a ticket by clicking on the Help icon in the far left column on the Canvas page or below the login credentials box on the login page. The Canvas Help Desk is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, with live support from online staff trained to assist University College Students.

COMPUTER LAB INFORMATION
DU has a number of labs on campus. Some labs are staffed, open to the entire student population, and allow public printing. DU offers students free use of public black and white laser printers and color printers in convenient locations on campus. Students are given a $21 printing allowance per quarter. Please note that students must have a valid DU student ID card in order to use this benefit. Read how to print on DUnet Printers on the IT website.

Information regarding lab locations and schedules is available at https://www.du.edu/it/labs/.

Review the New Student Help Guide: Discovering Technology at the University of Denver for quick instructions for printing with DU public printers, downloading anti-virus software, and the DUWifi.

PORTFOLIO
The University of Denver Portfolio Community supports electronic portfolios for students, faculty, and staff. The portfolios and discussion forums provide a mechanism for sharing and communication within the DU community as well as with the world beyond the campus. All students can post assignments and create a showcase of their best work, allowing people outside of the DU community to view their electronic portfolios, however, students in the Professional Creative Writing program and the Communication Management program are required to create, maintain, and submit assignments on their DU Portfolio. Students can access the Portfolio Community through PioneerWeb by clicking on the Resources tab. Assistance and further information is available at the Portfolio Help Link.

COMPUTER REQUIREMENTS
Regular consistent access to a computer and internet with the following specifications is required: at minimum, students should have Windows 8, Windows 8.1, or Windows 10 Home or Pro (recommended) and Apple users should have a Mac OS 10.10.5 or above. While Canvas has been carefully crafted to accommodate low bandwidth environments, the minimum of 512kbps is required.
TUITION AND FINANCIAL AID

TUITION PAYMENT
Tuition is normally due ten (10) days prior to the start of the quarter. Use the DU payment portal DUPay to view statements and account details, and to make tuition payments. The University of Denver’s Bursar’s Office will send an email to students’ DU email address (which can be accessed on the Office365 account) indicating that a bill is ready to be viewed and paid on DUPay. To access DUPay, log into PioneerWeb, and then choose DUPay on the Student tab under the My Statement/Payment section. Students can elect to have a copy of their bill automatically sent to an additional email address through DUPay on the authorized user tab. Instructions for setting up authorized users on DUPay are available on the Bursar’s Office website.

Current billing information is also available at any time through PioneerWeb on the Student tab under My Account Balance.

Students should check billing information on PioneerWeb and submit payment prior to the start of the quarter.

Payment options include:

- Cash, check, money order, wire transfer
- Employer reimbursed deferral
- Employer direct billing
- Financial aid
- Payment Plans

Students may make payments directly to the University of Denver by check, cash, money order, or wire transfer.

To make an online payment by initiating either a one-time withdrawal from a checking or savings account, please click on the Online Payment link on the University of Denver Bursar’s Office website. Certain restrictions and deadlines may apply for all payment options.

To have the financial services coordinator review available payment options, please call 303-871-3945 or 800-347-2042.

More information on employer reimbursement or direct bill payments, as well as the employer reimbursement paperwork, can be found on the University College website.

EMPLOYER REIMBURSED DEFERRAL
Students who will be reimbursed by their employers are eligible to defer the reimbursed portion of their tuition each quarter. At the time of registration, students must provide the Employer Reimbursement Payment Agreement form stating the terms of reimbursement. The Employer Reimbursement Payment Agreement form is available on PioneerWeb on the University College tab under Forms and Applications or can be found on our website in the Payment Options under Registration. This documentation must be updated each fall.

Upon registration, students are required to pay a non-refundable processing fee of $45 plus any tuition and fees that are not reimbursed by the employer. Deferred tuition is due several weeks after the end of each quarter to allow time for students to obtain reimbursement from their employers.

Tuition must be paid in full by the due date, regardless of the assigned grade (including incompletes).

Grade letters, listing courses taken, final grades, and tuition costs, are available for students who are reimbursed by their employers. Please request a grade letter at the time of registration.

EMPLOYER DIRECT BILLING
The University of Denver will bill employers who pay University College directly for employee tuition and fees upon request by the student. Each quarter, at the time of registration, students must provide a letter or form from their company authorizing billing, including the name and address of the person to whom the bill is to be sent. Please contact the Bursar’s Office at 303-871-4944 for direct bill options and requirements.

Direct billing will not be initiated if company policy states that payment is contingent upon a particular grade received. Students who fall under this provision are considered to be employer reimbursed.

The student is responsible for payment of all charges not covered by the third party by the billing due date. If for any reason the third party does not pay the invoiced charges, the student is responsible for paying the outstanding balance. Tuition and fees will remain on the student account until paid by the employer.

PAYMENT PLANS

Students may enroll in a flexible tuition payment plan through the University of Denver Bursar’s Office. The yearly or term plans allow participants to spread the tuition and fee expense over equal monthly payments. There is an enrollment fee of $20 per payment plan. For more information about the University of Denver payment plans and the enrollment deadlines, please visit the Bursar’s website.

FINANCIAL AID

Eligibility for financial aid is contingent upon compliance with various federal, state, and institutional policies and regulations that govern the awards.

Federal direct loan programs may be available for University College students who are admitted to a degree or certificate program. Non-degree students are not eligible for financial aid. Each quarter, admitted students must be enrolled at least half-time (half-time status is considered four credit hours for master’s degree and certificate program students and six credit hours for undergraduate degree students) to be eligible to receive financial aid funds. Please contact the Office of Financial Aid for information concerning existing student loan deferral requirements.

Students must complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Some students may be requested to submit the Institutional Verification form, and signed copies of federal tax returns. First time borrowers will also need to complete the Entrance Counseling and Promissory Note at studentloans.gov using the same PIN as their FAFSA. Students may check their financial aid award offer, view requirements for their account, and see the status of their loans on PioneerWeb under the Student tab.

Please note that financial aid funds are normally dispersed for three quarters (fall, winter, spring). If students wish to use financial aid to pay for summer quarter classes, they must contact the Office of Financial Aid at 303-871-4020 and complete the Summer Financial Aid Application, which is available during the spring quarter in PioneerWeb. More information is available on the Office of Financial Aid website.

The Office of Financial Aid will automatically reverse financial aid funds for students who are not registered in sufficient credit hours by the first week of the quarter. More financial aid information is available on our website in the Get Answers section under Financial Aid.

Additional sources of financial aid for graduate students can be investigated the DU Graduate Financial Aid pages or call 303-871-4020. Undergraduate students may find additional information about scholarships and financial aid on the DU Undergraduate Financial Aid website.

Refund Conditions and Results:

100% Withdrawal during 1st week of quarter (Mon-Fri); Class will not appear on transcript.

75% Withdrawal during 2nd week of quarter (Mon-Fri); Grade is recorded as a withdrawal (W) on transcript.

50% Withdrawal during 3rd week of quarter; Grade is recorded as a withdrawal (W) on transcript.

0% Withdrawal beginning the 4th week of quarter; Grade is recorded as a withdrawal (W) on transcript.

Class withdrawal is permitted through Friday week six. The grade is recorded as a withdrawal (W). This is the last day to drop via PioneerWeb.

Anyone withdrawing from their last class cannot withdraw online. Students withdrawing from all classes for the quarter must contact the Student Support Center to withdraw and must also fill out the Withdrawal Form available on the Students should not assume that they have been withdrawn from a course for missing the payment deadline, telling the instructor they are dropping, or for not attending. The refund schedule applies regardless of the date of registration or class participation. Please note that while a withdrawal (W) appears on the transcript, it simply indicates that a student withdrew from a course and is not calculated into the GPA.

Withdrawal and refund policies for classes not falling in the ten week format differ and may be found on our website.

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AGREEMENT

The University of Denver requires that all students complete a Financial Responsibility Agreement each year. In addition to communicating financial expectations, the agreement provides links regarding course drop/withdrawal deadlines, refund schedules, and how to easily access student account information online.

Students may complete the agreement online by logging into PioneerWeb. Once logged in, navigate to the Student tab and click on the Financial Responsibility Agreement under My Statement/Payment.

Please note student accounts will be on hold until the agreement is completed and students will be prevented from making any registration updates or changes until the form is submitted.

Status declaration is required in order for students to register for additional quarters at University College. Students may enroll as a non-degree student for two quarters and complete a maximum of three courses (12 quarter hours).

The student status form and policy is available online on PioneerWeb on the University College tab under Forms and Applications. If interested in a certificate or degree program, students must submit a completed application packet by the stated deadline during the following quarter.

Students accepted after the posted deadline for a specific quarter will have a student record reflecting full acceptance in the degree or certificate program for the subsequent quarter. Please note that in order to be eligible for financial aid, students must be admitted to a degree or certificate program prior to the start of the quarter. Please check the University College website under Admission for current deadlines.

CLASS FORMATS

University College offers courses in several different formats: online, on campus, hybrid, and hflex. Students should review the day/time, location, and course details information on the course schedule carefully to ensure that they are registered in the correct delivery method for their course.

Hybrid classes are a combination of online and on campus meetings. A hflex course is an on campus and online course which are linked. Students enrolled in the on campus section meet on campus during regularly scheduled days and times and interact with online classmates virtually in real-time (synchronous) during the class meetings as well as throughout the quarter on Canvas. Students enrolled in the online section of a hflex course meet in real-time (synchronous) during regularly scheduled days and times, and interact with on campus classmates virtually during class meeting times as well as throughout the quarter on Canvas. Students in a hflex course must participate in whichever manner they signed up for: on campus or online the entire ten weeks. Students can review the meeting schedule for hybrid and hflex classes in the Details area of the course schedule on our website.

NON-CREDIT OPTION

Students taking classes for non-credit will not receive a letter grade, and instructors are not obliged to evaluate written work. Courses are listed on an official transcript with a grade of NC (non-credit). University College cannot certify attendance in a non-credit course. Most 4000 level University College classes may be taken for non-credit on a space-available basis. In the event that a class has reached the enrollment limit, non-credit students will be given the option to change to credit status or be placed on a waitlist. To register for a course as non-credit, students must contact the Student Support Center.

WAITLISTS

If a class is full, students may either request to be placed on a waitlist by the Student Support Center or, if using Web registration, select "waitlist" on the action dropdown box. If a seat opens in the class, students will be notified via email in the order of their position on the waitlist. After notification of an open position, students must register within 24 hours (including weekends) or lose their place on the waitlist.

FIRST CLASS ASSIGNMENTS AND TEXTBOOKS

Due to the intensive nature of the quarter system, many University College courses require completion of an assignment by the first night of class. First class assignment information is available in Canvas approximately a week prior to the start of class.

Required textbook information for courses is available approximately three weeks before the quarter begins on the DU Bookstore website. Please enter the program (DU), the term, and then the department area of the course or search by Course ID (CRN of the course) on the right-hand side of the page. If there is more than one section of the course, please search by CRN for the most efficient results.

Textbooks are available onsite at the DU Bookstore, may be ordered online through the DU Bookstore website, or may be ordered at one of the many online bookstores: amazon.com, half.com etc... The DU Bookstore also has a textbook rental program designed to lower the cost of textbooks for students. Students simply chose to rent textbooks when available, use them all quarter and return them by the posted due date near the end of finals exam week. Not all textbooks are available for rental. More information about textbook rental is available on the DU Bookstore website. The bookstore also offers digital books through multiple vendor partnerships.

Please note that the DU Bookstore makes every effort to carry textbooks for University College classes. We recommend checking the availability of textbooks with the DU Bookstore prior to coming to campus.

CLASS LOCATIONS

Registered students may access classroom locations under Courses / Schedule on our website. By clicking on the building abbreviation, students can view maps and addresses for the building locations. Students may also access their schedule and classroom locations by logging into PioneerWeb and selecting MyWeb or by calling the Student Support Center. Students will be notified through their DU email account or by telephone of any classroom changes.
FACULTY
University College utilizes a combination of practitioner faculty, who are professionally active in the fields they teach about, and full-time University of Denver faculty. This model provides our students with the most relevant practice-based programs and academically rigorous experience. Most University College faculty members are happy to communicate by phone or email. Please reference the course syllabus for each instructor’s preferred contact information. Instructors’ biographies and email addresses can be found online in Courses / Schedule or by calling the Student Support Center.

GRADES
Grades are available on PioneerWeb as soon as they are validated by the Office of the Registrar (approximately ten days after the end of the term). Privacy regulations do not permit the release of grades over the telephone.

Transcripts, which list classes taken, grades earned, and non-credit classes, may be obtained through the Office of the Registrar or online on PioneerWeb. Current students can submit transcript requests and pay by credit card in the Student Records area on the Student tab of PioneerWeb. Transcripts may also be requested by submitting a Transcript Order Form. To download a request form for official transcripts, visit the Registrar’s Office website or call 303-871-3159 for more information.

Official paper transcripts take 1-2 business days to process and cost $11.00 per copy. Official electronic PDF transcripts take a day to process and cost $9 per electronic PDF. Unofficial transcripts cost $2.00 per copy. You may also print an unofficial transcript from PioneerWeb.

For students using the employer reimbursement option, grade letters are available listing courses taken, final grades, and tuition costs. Please request the grade letter at the time of registration from the Student Support Center.

INCOMPLETE GRADES
If a student has attended and successfully completed at least 80% of the course and course work, but extenuating circumstances prevent completion of the course by the end of the quarter, then the student may request an incomplete grade. An incomplete grade is not a substitute for a failing grade or a means of raising a grade by doing additional work after the quarter ends. An incomplete grade should not be assigned if a student must attend additional class meetings.

Students should request an incomplete grade from the instructor prior to the last day of the quarter. The student and instructor must fill out the Application for an Incomplete Grade form, which is available on PioneerWeb on the University College tab under Forms and Applications, and submit this to the Student Support Center. Both the instructor and student should retain a copy of the incomplete form for their records.

The amount of time to make up an incomplete grade should not exceed one quarter. Once the student has completed the required work for the course, the instructor awards a grade and indicates a date completed through an electronic grade change process on PioneerWeb. An Incomplete grade must be satisfied by the assigned completion date, which cannot exceed one year and typically should not exceed one quarter. Incomplete grades must be removed before graduation. If not removed, an incomplete grade will convert to an “F”, which will affect GPA. Incomplete grades may not be considered passing for purposes of determining academic standing or federal financial aid eligibility.

COURSE CANCELLATION
Courses may be cancelled when enrollment is insufficient to provide appropriate instruction. If a course is cancelled, students will be notified by telephone or email from the Student Support Center and/or the department’s advisor and automatically refunded for the course. Advisors are available to assist students in selecting alternative courses.

If University College classes are cancelled due to inclement weather, closure information for the University of Denver will be available on the DU website and on local media. Closures will also be relayed to students via email/phone/text using the Emergency Notification System. Students should sign up for the Emergency Notification System on PioneerWeb. A make-up class will be scheduled.

COURSE EVALUATIONS
At the end of each course, students are asked to complete a faculty and course evaluation. Please take the time to complete these evaluations thoughtfully. The student responses from each evaluated course provide essential feedback concerning instructors and courses and assist in determining improvements for subsequent quarters. To review previous evaluations, please log on to PioneerWeb and choose Course and Teacher Evaluation Summaries under the Courses tab.

COURSE SCHEDULE

The University College online course schedule is available approximately two weeks prior to the start of each quarter’s registration period. Please refer to our website for the most up-to-date listings for course offerings, program notes, room locations, current information, registration dates and deadlines, and first class assignments and books.

An annual course schedule is available on our website for each program area to assist students in planning when to take their courses. Please note that while University College makes every effort to offer classes as indicated on the annual course schedule, course offerings on the annual schedule can be subject to change. Annual schedules are available at the bottom of the University College website under Resources.

WRITING REQUIREMENTS

University College upholds high writing standards for all courses. Students should use A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, Eighth Edition: Chicago Style for Students and Researchers (Turabian, 2013) as their writing and style guide for all papers.

They can ask a research question via email, phone, or by one-on-one research consultation. To schedule a consultation or ask a research question, call 303-871-2905 or visit the Research Center website.

University College offers Open Write Nights throughout the quarter to provide drop-in writing support for both on campus and online students. Students will be able to get one on one writing assistance from University College faculty. Open Write Nights are typically held between 4:00 and 6:00pm (MST) in University Hall Room 304.
